

“Paul’s Second Letter to Timothy — Rightly Dividing the Word of Truth Demands That We Follow Paul — Part 6”

Last Time:

- Right Division’s Blessing: Regarding the Truth of God as Foundational

Now, for a moment, with that background, let us look again at that teaching in 1 Corinthians since it is so critically important that we understand it well. Quickly, we will relook at those verses that teach not only WHAT will occur with these special gifts listed there, but also there is teaching as to WHEN. You will remember we spent considerable time in chapter 13 where we found these key verses:

1 Cor. 13:8-10

8 Charity never faileth: but whether [there be] prophecies, they shall fail; whether [there be] tongues, they shall cease; whether [there be] knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophecy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

- So the times were changing, Paul wrote here, and those gifts of the spirit so abundantly present in the Corinthian church WOULD BE SOON PASSING AWAY. These are gifts given to believers. This teaching is NOT about God no longer working miracles. But it is about the tenor of the times and what God is doing in them. The Signs, Wonders, and Miracles worked by the power of God through those gifted persons would be ceasing altogether. Does God still work miracles today? Yes, but not through gifted persons endowed with such powers as before. Even prayer, as Paul learned, was not a “guarantee” of these miraculous blessings as it once had been.
- He then answers the question: when will this occur? Many assume here that Paul is writing about Christ’s return although that would remove the power of this exhortation intended to be so encouraging. But to say these blessings would not continue after Christ had returned would provide little consolation at that present time.
- Verse 10 then completes the picture: “But when that which is perfect [or the complete] is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.”

As we have seen, Paul is saying here that those gifts only made sense in the context of an incomplete revelation of what God was working out through his grace. And doesn't this actually say just that! These gifts were for the time then but would no longer be needed when the "complete" or the "perfect" had come into being and the former witness through those signs was no longer needed. No more revelation is needed for us. Those gifts have passed away and there is no question at all about that, or shouldn't be.

- This is so encouraging for us today living in the realm of grace WITHOUT the sign gifts and wonders present. It must have been for the Corinthians as well as those gifts were terminated by Almighty God. But take note that Paul is writing here that these gifts of the spirit would pass away because something far better would come into being soon is surely the intent here. One thing passes away by the design of Almighty God while another better thing takes its place. Paul is looking forward to that with great anticipation and joy.
- So we see here that the essential teaching as to WHY THESE GIFT WOULD BE ONLY TEMPORARY IS SIMPLY THIS: It was the completion of the giving of the word of God given to Paul that was the defining event as indicated in verses 9 - 12. Now, when such a miracle as this, the completion of God's word of grace has been fully accomplished, what remains for us? It is the receiving of that truth, of course. And that takes center stage in Paul's letters of encouragement, doesn't it?
- Right Division's Blessing: Regarding the Receiving of That Precious Truth
 - So we have seen how a dispensational change was occurring as Paul carried out his ministry. Those changes were significant in the lives of believers. If we are not aware of this Dispensational change and try to live as if we were living in an earlier day — or a future time — we will undoubtedly be living as believers without the empowering of God Almighty. That is a sad situation indeed, but its effects are inevitable.

Today GRACE is ABOUNDING, not Kingdom Law. THE TRUTH OF GOD IS FOUNDATIONAL. Apart from our understanding of that, HOW CAN WE STAND? Those receiving this teaching (the Word Rightly Divided) may grow and mature in the grace of the Lord and abound in life. The full power of God through that grace is ours, beloved! Amen!

- The analogy chosen here in verses 11 & 12 is so appropriate:

1 Cor. 13:11-13

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these [is] charity.

- Though our God is still a miracle working God indeed, he is not working as described in the Acts and in the gospels. Even those special gifts of the spirit, so common in Corinth, have passed away. Those powers and signs are no longer needed. Our Kingdom citizenship is heavenly, not earthly, and we have gained so much more in that heavenly realm that our joys in the spirit may be full.
- He asserts that these things “are abiding” and will, by implication, continue throughout this dispensation. They will not be “passing away” or “annulled”. What a blessing it is to know this and to possess this foundation of truth. On this we can surely always stand. I often think of those who have stood there down through the centuries. What challenges did they face? What burdens did they bear? In comparison, what are ours?
- So in conclusion, we have lost the miraculous signs of the Kingdom that was previously “at hand”. It is no longer since now the Prophetic Calendar has been stopped for a while as grace is poured out on sinners far and wide. We have lost those miraculous signs and the gifts of the spirit even the early Body Church experienced in some places (as in Corinth). We have gained so much more as we have seen. But what have we gained? Well, there are many exhortations in Paul’s letters with promises attached. They are important and so practical for our living today under grace as we see in Phil. 4:

Phil. 4:6-7

6 Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Our Scripture Today:

2 Tim. 4:1-8

1 I charge [thee] therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;

2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.

3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

4 And they shall turn away [their] ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

5 But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry.

6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished [my] course, I have kept the faith:

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

Today:

- Right Division's Legacy For Those Rejecting It — Their Shame and Condemnation
- Right Division's Legacy For Those Loving It — Our Blessing and Glorification

I. Right Division's Legacy For Those Rejecting It — Their Shame and Condemnation:

- Paul's strong exhortations to follow him have strong negative consequences for those choosing not to follow him. Why are they so strong? Well, consider Heb. 10:28 for a moment: "He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses". And then, Num. 15:31 "Because he hath despised the word of the LORD, and hath broken his commandment, that soul shall utterly be cut off; his iniquity [shall be] upon him." And there are others in Deuteronomy that make it clear that being cut off means to be executed. That was capitol punishment!

So, considering that Moses was the administrator of the Dispensation of the Law and Paul was the same, that is, administrator, of the Dispensation of the Grace of God, we can see how critically important this teaching of the apostle is. He is the apostle of the Gentiles. Hear ye him! Even the truth of the gospel of grace is at stake here.

- The issue under Moses was the preservation and honor of the Law. Under Paul, it is the Revelation concerning Grace through the finished work of Christ and the abundant life thereby. Today, those rejecting God's administration of grace have only Shame, shame, and more shame as we shall see today. This will affect one's life and potentially also one's eternity. Those rejecting Paul and his word of grace were, the apostle writes, dwelling in a world of shame. With God's word regarding free grace set aside or mixed with other kinds of doctrine worldly, earthly, cares and much legalism would surely be abounding instead of his glorious grace and truth!
- Firstly, we will look at one's life here and now. What did it mean to Paul when one rejected the Word of Truth, the Word Rightly Divided?

[READ] 2 Tim. 2:14-18

14 Of these things put [them] in remembrance, charging [them] before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, [but] to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But shun profane [and] vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

17 And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus;

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

- Verse 15 is central here. But verse 16 and the following verses explain why Rightly Dividing the Word of Truth Demands that we follow Paul, leaving the other teachers behind. Here shun = wide berth / profane = no door or no exit / vain babbling = lit. empty sounds.
- Verses 16 & 17: How important is it to remain firm and never turn aside? The negative consequence of that is made clear: "... And their word will eat as doth a canker". Rejecting the Word Rightly Divided leads to even more ungodliness and like a cancer only gets worse and worse as it bears its evil fruit.

- “... striving not about words to no profit, [but] to the subverting of the hearers”: Lit. “Overturning” those hearing these false teachings. The Greek word here is the one our English word “catastrophe” is based on!! So the apostle chooses the strongest of words to show how serious it is for the teachers of God’s word to turn against Right Division. This affects not only them but also their flocks:
- Verse 18: “... Who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already ...”: Apparently they had denied the literal meaning of the words and had taught that the resurrection expected was only spiritual and had already occurred. In that case many had died with a false hope of the physical resurrection as he also taught about in 1 Thessalonians 4. Actually this is a common teaching today in the churches as many teach that the coming Tribulation and Kingdom are meant only metaphorically and that we are in fact living in the Kingdom today. So very sad is this teaching.
- This is ultimately about their shame. The apostle writes that there is shame, either now or later, for those turning aside. Skipping to chapter 4 with Paul’s last words before his martyrdom where he writes so bluntly about their ultimate end and their condemnation. This is all about judgment, whether in reference to the Bema Seat judgment for us, or the Great White Throne for others:

[READ] 2 Tim. 4:1-5

1 I charge [thee] therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;
2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.
3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;
4 And they shall turn away [their] ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.
5 But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. [See also Phil. 3:17-21]

- Verse 1: “the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom. Is this two or only one judgment? The following verses make it clear that there are two:

- “His appearing”:* Literally, “his epiphany or light display”.
 - “His kingdom”:* The establishing of his Millennial Kingdom is referred to here.
 - One aspect of the false teacher’s doctrine is revealed here and this may be the heart of the matter. It seems to me that these false teachers, in rejecting Right Division, had taken scripture figuratively and thereby had begun to reject fundamental teachings such as that of the Pre-tribulational Rapture among others and even the very essence of the Gospel of the Grace of God itself. See Gal. 2:5 and Col. 1:23 for more scripture.
 - If the objective and literal teaching is rejected, then one ends up with a teaching that reduces itself to “story telling” or “fables”, to use the word he uses here. They were filling the teaching time not with spiritual food and strong doctrine, but with stories. That is so true so often today, is it not? In die time, the true and sound and healthy doctrine is no longer known.
- Verses 2 - 5: Sound teaching and preaching is essential for Timothy as it was for Paul. The enemies of the faith abound and their lies (presented as “fables” == “myths” or “stories”) “scratch” the “itching ears” of many who reject the Truth of the Word of God Rightly Divided. What are they then left with? Legal religion with its lies and compromises and increasingly an abounding worldliness.
 - Indeed, their shame inevitably manifests itself in many dimensions as we see in these scriptures and others:

[READ] 2 Tim. 3:1-5

1 This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come.
2 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,
3 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,
4 Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;
5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

- We are in the last days, if only we knew it. This is not about morality, by the way, at least not primarily. It is really about spiritual apostasy. Even as for the prophets sent to Israel. Adultery in a physical sense abounded and the prophets take much notice of it. But the real issue leading to everything else was spiritual apostasy, or adultery. Shame, shame, shame!
- Take note of the emphasis on love here — it is mentioned three times. Oh, to be a lover of God and empowered by the abundance of God's grace instead of what is listed here.
- The fact is that those that reject Right Division end up shaming themselves and will surely be condemned in the end.

II. Right Division's Legacy For Those Loving It — Our Blessing and Glorification:

- The great contrast between those rejecting the Word Rightly Divided and that Word of Truth itself is evident here. In Philippians 3 it is so starkly stated that it is like the difference between black and white:
- For those rejecting the Word Rightly Divided, shame and even condemnation. But for us who love that word and our Lord Jesus without blemish, blessings in this life and glory eternally! Amen.

[READ] Phil. 3:17-21 [Our study would not be complete without at least reading from Paul's letter to the Philippians, chapter 3]

17 Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample.

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, [that they are] the enemies of the cross of Christ:

19 Whose end [is] destruction, whose God [is their] belly, and [whose] glory [is] in their shame, who mind earthly things.)

20 For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:

21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

- Paul's so compelling words here are striking: "[whose] glory [is] in their shame", "who mind earthly things". The consequence of such false teachings is also equally concrete: Judgments for some and condemnation for others, on the one hand, and a glorious transformation for us dwelling in the realm of grace with its teachings and eternal hope for tomorrow.

- This leads so naturally to our final point here today which we should make our major focus from now until our eternal glory is manifest. Their shame and condemnation in contrast to our blessing and glorification! Paul ends his life and ministry with these compelling and powerful words at the end of his second letter to Timothy:

[READ] 2 Tim. 4:6-8

6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished [my] course, I have kept the faith:

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

Tit. 2:13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;

Application:

- Every spiritual blessing in the heavenlies in Christ Jesus is ours already [Eph. 1]
- We have lost much (signs, wonders, and miracles, for example, and other early blessings if the coming Kingdom on earth) but have gained so very much more [1 Cor. 12-13]
- We have this treasure now but in earthly vessels, as it were — but will we enjoy it fully? To enjoy this treasure we must embrace it by faith, we must love the Lord and his workings under grace as Paul did.
- But true and authentic love is never cheap - it costs greatly in every case, whether here in a worldly sense or in reference to life and witness for Christ in a godless world.
- We can turn aside. But by the grace and power of Almighty God and thorough an abundance of faith, we shall not!
